

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

It will be interesting to our police report that Mr. H. H. and Mrs. Talton, who have already done the State some service in the past, were committed to answer charges of felonies. They were arrested by Officer Gilmore.

MERCHANTS AT THE MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.—At the request of the meeting of merchants and business men, on Monday night last, the president of the Louisville Chamber of Commerce has called a meeting of that body at the Merchants' Exchange this (Thursday) evening. The president in appointing the meeting requested the attendance and cooperation of all business men and citizens who take an interest in the welfare of the city. The call was addressed to all business men who propose the establishment in Louisville of manufacturers of several articles of trade, which are essential to the commerce of Louisville, and can be manufactured as well here as elsewhere.

This is the continuation of a wholesome movement, recently begun among our business men, which we hope will be vigorously prosecuted to ensure that all manufacturing have been, and which almost every branch of the business of our city was represented. From some remarks of the president, we have been led to conclude that the regular meetings of the Chamber of Commerce have not usually been as fully attended as they should have been. Hitherto only very few of our merchants appear to have taken much interest in this institution. This should be all the more insisted on, of course.

The dealers in dry goods, hats and caps, boots and shoes, drugs, liquors, produce, hardware, fancy goods, &c., as well as the dealers in groceries and provisions should not fail to avail themselves of the advantages which may be derived from the Chamber of Commerce, if an effort is made to interest them in our business.

The subject referred to the Chamber of Commerce is not, I hope, one of interest to all who care to promote the welfare of our city. We hope there will be a full attendance not only to-night, but upon every occasion when such topics are to be brought forward, upon every thing essential to the commercial prosperity of Louisville we are accomplished.

THEATRE.—Miss Maggie Mitchell appeared last night in two pieces, "Jewelles" and the "Lady's Stratagem." She is a graceful and pleasing tragedian.

Today Miss Mitchell appears in the "Refuge" and will also repeat the "Lady's Stratagem," in which she will sustain five different personae, with characteristic dances.

We can the attention of our readers to Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale of household furniture this morning at 10 o'clock, at the office of Mr. W. W. H. and Mrs. H. H. Talton.

Eighty 7 octave semi-grand piano is to be sold at 11 o'clock precisely. This sale offers great inducements to families to supply themselves with every variety of articles necessary to housekeeping.

THEATRE.—The afternoon, at 3 p.m., eleven building lots on Broadway, Chestnut, and Campbell streets. Real estate is unquestionably on the increase in our city. Capitalists need have no fear in investing in property so slightly located as the lots to be sold this afternoon.

RECOLLECT the auction sale of groceries, liquors, tobacco, cigars, and second-hand furniture, this morning (Thursday), at 10 o'clock, at the store of Mr. Sam'l Hyman, Main street opposite the National Hotel. Good bargains may be expected.

THE BROADWAY HOTEL, Lexington, Ky. We had an opportunity, within a few weeks past, to enjoy the genuine Kentucky hospitality of that excellent establishment. Comfortable apartments, well furnished and always neat and well-kept; comfortable beds; well-attired and well-dressed servants—and a table, handsomely supplied with all the good things, substances, rarities and delicacies that the garden-pot of Kentucky can afford, render the Broadway Hotel one of the most home-like and desirable place of sojourn for the traveler. No more clever gentlemen and attentive hosts can anywhere be found than Colen, Didukow and Mr. Cowles. We commend the Broadway to the attention of visitors to Lexington.

THE REV. STUART ROBINSON, the eloquent and popular divine, of Baltimore, Md., formerly of Franklin, has been reported to have recently returned to the congregation of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city to become their pastor, and we learn that strong efforts are undertaken that he will accept the call.

COL. HUMPHREY MARSHALL, our talented Representative, has been telegraphed to return home immediately, on account of the serious illness of one of his children.

Family Grocery.—Messrs. J. C. Wigington & Co., on Third street, opposite the post-office, have a fine store of family groceries. Mr. Wigington is a young man, of strong disposition, and he deserves encouragement. Those who become his patrons are likely to continue to patronize him.

FROM NICARAGUA.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Nicaragua will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OUR HOUSE.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—The Geo. Law has arrived at New Orleans. The news she brings from Bardstown will be found in our telegraph column, and it looks very gloomy for Walker.

ISRAELIAN SALMON.—Stephens is ready to receive visitors at his salmon adjoining the Old Fellow's Hall. Stephens is noted for his ice-cream, sherbet, &c.

OWEN'S HOME.—This popular house will continue to be the residence of the family of the late Mr. Owen, under the firm of R. Owen & Co. Mr. Owen, Jr., and Mr. Steely have been associated with the house since it was opened, and are fully capable to give satisfaction.

MATTHEWS.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at the Merchants' Exchange. This meeting is called pursuant to the request of the meeting of citizens held at the same place on last Monday evening. The special object of the meeting has reference to the development of the manufacturing interest in this city. Mechanics and producers of all sorts are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting, and to exert themselves to be interested and encouraged. Other subjects of general importance will also be discussed. We hope to see a large number of merchants and manufacturers assembled. The present is the best possible time for all classes of dealers to meet and exchange their views.

WE CALL attention to the card of R. S. Evans, attorney-at-law. Mr. R. is a young gentleman of fine talents. He can be found at the office of C. B. Cotton, Esq., on Fifth street, between Main and Market.

KANSAS EMIGRANTS.—Major Rutherford, a company of two hundred and sixty men, bound for Kansas, arrived in Mobile on Thursday in the steamboat Messenger. Each man was presented with a Bible by the Mobile Bible Society.

FROM BARDSTOWN.—

